

P.O Box 98353
Pelican Square
Windhoek, Namibia
Tel: +264 61 230 888
Email: communication@nacso.org.na

Conservation Leadership Programme (CLP) Internship

Natural Resource Management Intern

NACSO invites applicants to fill one CLP intern position, in the field of natural resource management.

The applicant should possess the below attributes

- Honours in conservation/NRM, environment or similar qualification;
- Strong understanding of issues within the CBNRM Programme;
- Drivers' license will be an advantage;
- Computer (Word, Excel, PowerPoint) / data management skills;
- Excellent written and verbal communications skills in English;
- Excellent interpersonal skills;
- Good administration, time management and organizational skills;
- Facilitation skills;
- Ability to pay attention to detail;
- Ability to manage some independent work;
- Strong critical thinking skills;
- Willing to work for long periods in the field, do some menial tasks in the field, work over weekends;
- Flexibility and adaptability to change; and
- Be a team player.

Location

The successful candidate will be based in Windhoek, with a significant amount of travel time in the field.

Business, Enterprise and Livelihood Working Group Intern

NACSO invites applicants to fill one CLP intern position, in the field of business, enterprise and livelihoods.

The applicant should possess the below attributes

- Honours in business, business management, business administration or similar qualification;
- Strong understanding of issues within the CBNRM Programme;
- Drivers' license will be an advantage;
- Computer (Word, Excel, PowerPoint) / data management skills;
- Excellent written and verbal communications skills in English;
- Excellent interpersonal skills;

P.O Box 98353
Pelican Square
Windhoek, Namibia
Tel: +264 61 230 888
Email: communication@nacso.org.na

- Good administration, time management and organizational skills;
- Facilitation skills;
- Ability to pay attention to detail;
- Ability to manage some independent work;
- Strong critical thinking skills;
- Willing to work for long periods in the field, do some menial tasks in the field, work over weekends;
- Flexibility and adaptability to change; and
- Be a team player.

Location

The successful candidate will be based in Windhoek, with a significant amount of travel time in the field.

All applications should be supported with certified documents. Any qualifications obtained outside Namibia should have an evaluation report from NQA.

Applications should be emailed to applications@nacso.org.na – please indicate in the subject line “CLP – Natural Resource Management” or “CLP – Business, Enterprise and Livelihood.”

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted, kindly take note that no applications will be returned.

Closing date: 21 February 2025, at 16:00

Kindly Note that this is a paid two-year internship, with medical aid and social security